Mr. Schare said he loved the science fair and spoke of how it gets better every year and that everyone putting it together did a tremendous job.

Mrs. Keegan agreed with Mr. Schare and said that it was impressive to see so many science fair volunteers and thanked everyone for helping with the event.

Mrs. Best also thanked everyone who worked on the science fair and then thanked Superintendent Trent Bowers and Director of Communications Vicki Gnezda for offering the Community Coffees with the Superintendent that are being held on one Friday a month. Mrs. Best stated that she thinks it's a great way for people to have informal discussions with the superintendent and that she really appreciates Dr. Bowers and Vicki Gnezda for putting the coffees together because she knows it takes a lot of time out of their day.

Finally, Mrs. Best reminded the board of upcoming events stating that TWHS will hold its Black History presentation tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Best said that she has been contacted by a retired teacher working on it who told her that the presentation is amazing, so Mrs. Best hopes people will have a chance tomorrow to see it.
