Medical Benefits

Administered by Anthem

Comprehensive and preventive healthcare coverage is important in protecting you and your family from the financial risks of unexpected illness and injury. A little prevention usually goes a long way—especially in healthcare. Routine exams and regular preventive care provide an inexpensive review of your health. Small problems can potentially develop into large expenses if left unmanaged. By identifying health conditions early, they can often be managed and treated at little cost.

Comprehensive healthcare also provides peace of mind. In case of an illness or injury, you and your family are covered by an excellent medical plan through Worthington City Schools.

Worthington City Schools offers you a High Deductible Healthcare PPO medical plan. You may select where you receive your medical services. If you use in-network providers, your out-of-pocket costs will be less.

Health Savings Account (HSA)

Administered by CME Federal Credit Union

An HSA is a medical savings account owned by an employee and is designed to help save for future qualified medical expenses (QME), as well as retiree health expenses. Funds are contributed to an HSA on a pretax basis, and any unused funds rollover from year to year. Only HSA eligible employees may contribute to an HSA. An individual is HSA eligible if he or she:

- Is covered by an HSA-qualified High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP);
- Has no other disqualifying coverage (HRA, FSA, etc.);
- Is not enrolled in Medicare;
- Cannot be claimed as a tax dependent of another person; and
- Is not covered by any non-HDHP coverage like spousal coverage, Tricare, Medicaid, etc.

Any contribution by the employee to his/her HSA up to the maximum limits provided by law may, at the member's discretion, be made either by payroll deduction or in a lump sum payment. The HSA shall be maintained by the employee for his/her exclusive benefit and that of his/her dependents. Distribution of funds from the HSA may be made at any time at the discretion of the employee. The employee is responsible for substantiating the distribution for qualified medical expenses (QME).

2024 Employer HSA Contribution

Worthington City Schools contributes a flat dollar amount to each participating member's account in January. For 2024, the employer contribution for eligible Classified employees and Other Administrators is $250 for those enrolled in the single plan and $500 for those enrolled in the family plan. An additional $250 or $500 respectively, may be earned through wellness initiatives completed in the prior calendar year. The employer contribution for eligible Certified employees and Administrators is $200 for those enrolled in the single plan and $400 for those enrolled in the family plan. An additional $200 or $400 respectively, may be earned through wellness initiatives completed in the prior calendar year. The earned portion of the Board HSA contribution will be deposited in February.

If you are joining the district's medical plan mid-year due to a mid-year hire date or qualifying life event, please review your negotiated union agreement for more details on the employer contribution to your HSA.

2024 HSA Contribution Limits

Single Plan $4,150

Family Plan $8,300

Catch-Up Contributions (age 55 or older) $1,000

Employees should note that the total of the Board contribution plus all personal contributions to your HSA cannot exceed the contribution limit. If an individual over contributes to the HSA, he or she will be subject to tax penalty on the excessive funds. Any excessive amounts must also be reported on the individual's tax return as regular income. These can be corrected prior to April 15 of the following year by contacting CME Federal Credit Union.

Increased Tax Penalty for Non-Eligible Expenses

If HSA funds are used for ineligible medical expenses, such as the purchase of a new television, those amounts are taxed as normal income on the individual's tax return. If the individual is under age 65 at the time of the distribution, he or she is also subject to a substantial "early withdrawal" tax penalty.

Definition of Dependent for HSA is Different than Group Health Plan

An HSA owner can use the funds to cover qualified medical expenses of the account owner, his or her legal spouse, and tax dependents. Under Health Care Reform, an employee can cover his or her adult children up to age 26 on their medical plan regardless of student or marital status, financial dependence or where they reside. However, medical expenses incurred by the adult child will NOT be a qualified expense under the HSA unless the employee's adult child is a tax dependent. If the adult child is not a tax dependent, any HSA dollars used must be declared as regular income and will be subject to a penalty (~20%).

For a list of Qualified Medical Expenses and additional HSA information, please see IRS Publication 969 Health Savings Accounts and Other Tax-Favored Health Plans, and IRS Publication 502 Medical and Dental Expenses at www.irs.gov.

Worthington City Schools partners with CME Federal Credit Union to administer their Health Savings Account.

Flexible Spending Account (FSA) & Dependent Care Spending Account (DCA)

Administered by American Fidelity

Worthington City Schools offers three types of Flexible Spending Accounts. These accounts allow employees to set aside funds each pay period on a pretax basis and use them for qualified expenses covered by the specific type of FSA. Unlike an HSA, Flexible Spending Accounts are a “Use it or lose it” account. Please take care in determining the amount of funds you elect to contribute to these types of accounts. FSA’s can be elected during open enrollment and cannot be changed without a qualifying event once elected.

Flexible Spending Accounts available include:

- 1) Limited FSA - This FSA is for employees who also have an HSA. It can only be used to cover qualified dental and vision expenses. The total amount elected is available to be spent at the beginning of the plan year, but is collected through payroll each pay. If you retire or resign, any funds not yet collected will be withheld from one of your last two paychecks.
- 2) Full medical FSA - Only non-HSA participants and Medicare enrollees may participate in this type of FSA. You can use this type of FSA to pay for qualified medical, dental, vision and prescription drug expenses. The total amount elected is available to be spent at the beginning of the plan year, but is collected through payroll each pay. If you retire or resign, any funds not yet collected will be withheld from one of your last two paychecks.
- 3) Dependent Care Account (DCA) - This type of FSA allows employees to put aside funds pre-tax to help pay for dependent care expenses (such as daycare). You pay for eligible expenses when incurred, and then submit a reimbursement claim form or file a claim online to be repaid from the DCA. It should be noted that for DCA, you cannot be reimbursed for more than you have currently contributed to the account.

Claim reimbursements for any of these FSA plans can be filed online at afadvantage.com or through the American Fidelity Mobile App. A paper claim form for FSA or DCA are also available on the district benefits web page.

Like the HSA, the IRS sets an annual maximum contribution limit for FSA’s as follows:

2024 FSA Contribution Limits:

Limited purpose or full medical FSA = $3,050

Dependent Care Account = $5,000 per family

Note: If you are enrolled in Medicare, by law you are not allowed to contribute to an HSA.
